Elder Named Bar Foundation Fellow

Knoxville, TN, United States – May 25, 2016

John W. Elder, Partner at Paine Bickers LLP, was recently inducted into the Fellows Class of the Knoxville Bar Foundation. Elder, along with eleven other members of the Knoxville legal community, was recognized at the Bar Foundation's Annual Dinner on May 24, 2016.

Elder joins current partners, Thomas A. Bickers and Matthew J. Evans as a fellow.

Each year the Foundation inducts a new Fellows Class which is less than one percent of the active bar association. The Fellows represent quality men and women practitioners in our community who have distinguished themselves in the practice of law and service.

The Fellows Program is designed to fulfill two purposes. First, to support the community services and programs funded by the KBF through Fellows' contributions and, second, to publicly honor and recognize those lawyers who have distinguished themselves in their practices and in their service to the Knoxville legal community.

About the firm:

Paine Bickers LLP represents a variety of clients in non-criminal legal issues and matters. Established in 1987, the firm has offices in Knoxville and Austin, TX and is engaged in the representation of clients in complex litigation matters in state and federal courts involving products liability, toxic and environmental torts, class actions and pharmaceutical matters, as well as many kinds of commercial, employment, construction and estate matters.
